COVID update

Weddings and funerals are limited to the lesser of 1 person per 2sq metres and 300 people.

Record keeping. With the increase in available places, for most parishes, this will mean that advance bookings for Sunday Mass are no longer required. However, records of attendees at Masses and other services are still required to be collected, preferably using the Services NSW App and QR code.

Churches open for private prayer. It should now be possible for churches to remain open for private prayer, because records and 'COVID marshals' are not required except for Masses or other formal services. Sanitizer and a QR sign should be available at church entrances.

Mask Wearing. Parishioners are encouraged to wear masks where social distancing is not possible, but this is no longer mandatory.

Choirs. Indoor choirs are limited to 5 people. The small choir should face forwards and not towards each other with physical distancing of 1.5 metres between each chorister, and 5 metres from all other people including members of the congregation, where practical.

Congregational singing is still not permitted for indoor Masses.

Congratulations to Isobel Marchmont who has turned 100. God bless you and we pray you have a wonderful year.

Hazel Claire and Billie Rose Nyst Costello will be Baptised on Sunday 21 February 2021. Congratulations to the Nyst-Costello parents and welcome to the Christian family. Please keep Hazel and Billie and their family in your prayers as they embark on their faith journey.

Uluru Statement from the Heart – Interim Voice Report

The Government is running a co-design process to decide what a Voice to Parliament will look like. It is currently in a public consultation process that is open for everyone to contribute

The Uluru Dialogue and the Indigenous Law Centre at UNSW seek to guide those who support the Uluru Statement from the Heart and a Voice to Parliament protected in the Australian Constitution to make a submission to the co-design process. This is a significant opportunity to press our case. We are calling on all who are inspired by the Uluru Statement to make a submission in support of our key positions.

Write your own submission in response to the Interim Voice Report and upload your submission at haveyoursay.voice.niaa.gov.au/submissions. or Send the Uluru Dialogue a copy of your submission by email to:
